

Our school celebrated 71th Independence Day with great patriotic fervor, zeal and zest. School campus was decorated with Tricolour posters and balloons. The function began with the unfurling of the National Flag by the Principal, Mr. Manoj Tyagi. He urged the students to remember the sacrifices of freedom fighters and soldiers who attained martyrdom and also to strive towards making India free from religious bigotry, casteism, illiteracy, superstitions, poverty that obstruct the growth of the nation. It was followed by the patriotic rendition, "Sarfaroshi ki Tamanna" sung by the students of various classes which charged up the atmosphere with patriotic spirit.

Girls of classes VI to VIII also presented a dance, "Maula mere le le meri jaan" and were able to ignite feeling of patriotism in the hearts and mind of one and all present.

A Fancy Dress Competition for classes I to IV was organised. The children looked very sweet and innocent in their colourful costumes and there was excitement amongst the children. All the participants displayed their roles beautifully depicting freedom fighters, soldiers and portraying Bharat Mata. All the participants were given chocolates and books in form of prizes. Vote of thanks was given by Mr. Uttam Chatterji in which he praised the efforts of the participants and the whole teaching staff along with giving message to children to also remember the duties towards the country other than merely demanding the rights.

Janmashthmi “Birthday of Shri Krishna” was celebrated in a very colourful way in Pallavan School on August 15, 2017. Students of classes I to IV came in ethnic wear dressed as Radha and Krishna. The little Krishnas and Radhas looked adorable in their traditional costumes and the entire area was transformed into a land of joy, celebration and happiness. The naughty little Krishnas were all set to sway and dance with the Gopis and Radha. Girls of classes III to VII danced on musical medley, “Radha Nachegi”, Madhvi Sharma stole the heart of everyone with her beautiful bhajan, “Ek Radha Ek Meera”

Students of classes IX to XII gathered at the front entrance and through team work made pyramids to break Dahi Handis. They were very excited to indulge in pot breaking activity. In the background, there was portrayal of raas-leela Beautiful decoration of the event and creative pots made the event more colourful.

