

Pallavan Becomes the First School in the Area to Organise Live Online Classes Amid the Corona Virus Crisis, when the whole of India is facing lockdown and the students are confined to their homes with nothing constructive to do, Pallavan School Jhalawar has taken an initiative to engage students in constructive activities by organising Live Online Classes from class Nursery to 12 using a Live Video Calling App. The classes are organised from 9.45 am to 12.45 pm. Around 75 per cent of the students are attending the classes. The teachers are also enjoying using the new technique of teaching. The students are also given worksheets which they do and share it online.
