

Pallavan School, Jhalawar celebrated the Constitution Day in which special assembly was conducted for the mass reading of the Preamble to the constitution of India on 26-11-2016. Speeches were given by the students of all four houses of the school on the topics such as: Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties, Directive Principles of States Policy and Preamble. Students from the different houses of school participated in the Quiz Competition held as per the guidelines given by the CBSE. The competition had a positive vibe of generating curiosity towards knowing and understanding more about the constitution and its features. The quiz was conducted in two categories; Juniors (grade VI-VIII) and Seniors (grade IX-XI). All the students took part with great zeal.

