

MY STORY- MY ENDING THEATRICAL PERFORMANCE

On Saturday, December 10, 2016 Pallavan School, Jhalawar witnessed a theatrical performance by the members of Ritinjali. The performers all the girls of the troupe entered the school with the motive of teaching children the importance of gender equality and empowerment of women in the society and marked the change in the children who are going to make the future society. Their play (My Story-My Ending) made the children aware with the ground reality of discrimination being done against the girl child and harassment at the workplaces. They left a very important message among the children for making this society safe for women and encouraging girls to pursue their dreams even if they have to take a stand in order to fulfil their dreams. Intervention session held afterwards brought forth the views of students and teachers and also discussion was done on how to cope with the situations in which girls and women at large find themselves helpless due to the patriarchal mindset existing in the society.
