

The Asia Pacific schools initiative programme is an educational platform being convened by the (Centre for escalation of peace, New Delhi) whose chairman is Mr. Arun Kapur. It is comprising of multiple annual programme through the year 2017 i.e. targeted at creating a network of future leaders for the region and as well as developing and nurturing in each one of them the capacity to exercise “Leadership through serene strength.

The participants are coming from the following countries like Indonesia, Bangladesh, Thailand, Bhutan, Abu Dhabi, Tibet and Nepal along with students of Vasant Valley school, New Delhi and Pallavan School, Jhalawar (Host School)

This programme will enable them to lead with inner calm by building on the common values and shared culture of the Asia Pacific Community. Moreover it will celebrate the diversity and uniqueness of the various local contexts.

The cultural programme was held in the school premises. Vibrant and colorful folk dance performances were given by Pallavan School children on the folk theme of Kalbelia and Ghoomer,

Throughout the year, the programmes are being generously supported by the New Delhi- bases Pallavan Learning System. Accordingly the two programmes will be the part of the APSI in 2017 are: –

1. Asia Pacific Schools Initiative: - Youth Leadership programme for students and teachers from across the APAC region starting and ending at the Pallavan School in Jhalawar.
2. Asia Pacific Schools Initiative: - Youth Leadership programme for students across the Delhi/ NCR region starting and ending at the Vasant Valley School in New Delhi.

