

HINDI DIWAS-2019

On 14 September Hindi Diwas has been celebrated. The staff and students of Pallavan School, Jhalawar, celebrated Hindi Diwas on 14th September, 2019 in the school as a mark to acknowledge of Hindi as the National Language. The celebration began with the lamp lighting. After it students took part in the event. They started with Saraswati Vandana which was sung by Akansha Jhala of class VIII. Kavya and Shivali of class VI have sung the poem on “Shrangar Ras”

Uday of class VI sang the poem in Hindi “Tiranga Janta He Sab”.

Siya of class VIII, Aliya of class VI and Nandini of class VIII praised the glory of women and read a poem on “Veer Ras”.

Yashika Suman of class IX anchored the whole programme. Classes IX to XII have participated in the essay writing competition on Hindi Diwas.

After that the teachers also spoke on the ability of the language to bind the nation. They threw light on the contribution of great writers like Munshi Premchand, Mahadevi Verma and others and dwelt on the impact and relevance of Hindi in today's time. The teachers also emphasized that we should be proud of our National Language. The Language and culture of any country plays an important role in making people to connect with the people and helps in making a strong nation. Thus the celebration concluded with a positive note.
