

Kinesiology Camp was conducted on April 7 in Pallavan School Campus. Amazing facilitators from USA (Dr. Rebecca K Lytle a Professor in the Department of Kinesiology at California State University, Chicago, Ms. Marci Pope an instructor at California State University and Dr. Debra Roth a faculty member in the Kinesiology and Education Departments at California State University, along with Mrs. Shaloo Sharma, Head of Pallavanjali Gurgaon demonstrated a variety of adapted physical activity movement experiences to enhance physical skills. Participants experienced activities to develop specific skill areas such as balance, eye-hand coordination, spatial awareness and loco motor skills. It was a day of play, fun and learning for the students of Pallavan School.

